Come & Try!

Creative Peer Space

Come along to participate in a planned creative activity or use the art and craft supplies available to work on your own thing.

Writing, craft, knitting and all forms of expressive creativity are welcome. A fun space to connect with peers and perhaps discover a new hobby or meet others with similar interests.

The group will be facilitated by the Lived Experience Project Officer - Jess.

For: People who have a lived experience of BPD
When: Friday 29 September 10am to 11.30am
Where: BPD Co, Level 1, 100 Greenhill Road, Unley

Registration essential as places are limited:
https://creative-peer-space-29sept.eventbrite.com.au

Please note: This is not therapy or designed to provide mental health/crisis support, if you require assistance, please follow up with your GP or mental health worker.

If you are unable to secure a ticket for this event, check out our website for upcoming sessions and groups.

For further information, please contact Jess on 7425 6500.

Government of South Australia
SA Health